COUNTRYMEN IN CHINA. Ir is creditable to the sagacity and good sense of American residents in China that they have uniformly refused to allow themselves to be drawn into support of the mischievous Burlingaine Mission, notwithstanding the emphasis with which the minor members of that undertaking have claimed of late, in the journals of the United States, hostility to British interests as the real object of the undertaking. Looking back, after the lapse of a year and a half since the time when the despatch of two Mandsrins to Europe, with Mr Anson Burlingame, was first announced from Peking, it is entertaining to trace the successful and wholly irreconcileable phases through which the Mission has been made to pass in the eyes of the public. At the outset, in the beginning of 1868, we find the Chinese Government, in the official documents of which translations were published at the time, appointing two petty hangers on of the Foreign Yamen to travel in Europe, accompanied by "the American, Burlingame, whilst at the same time gushing communications from the Ex-American Minister himself enwill be repudiate lightened the world with reference to the interests such pr sudden burst of affectionate confidence as intended specia after dinner, with which the Chinese

Of the 292 new Deputies elected, about 200 are " officials:" the remainder belong to the opposition of various shades. But this is not the moral of the vote. It is to be found in the astounding fact, that while 4.443,928 votes were recorded for the official Deputies, 3,324,596 were given to the opposition, being 14 millious increase ver the elections of 1863. DEATH OF DON EDUARDO SAN JUST (Sydney Horald, June 16.) Our issue of the 29th of May, contained an announcement of the melancholy death of this gentleman caused by injuries received through casting himself from a window. The evidence adduced at the luquest shows clearly that at the time of committing the tleman, who was a Spapiard by birth, was for some years proprietor and conductor of a newspaper, published in his native language, at New Orleans, but left the United time of the Lopez invasion. After ramai: ing there for some time he became a memben of the Civil Service, and prior to his arrival here, in 1859, as Consul-General for Spain, he discharged, the duties of Spanish on revisiting Europe he was by his Sovereign created a member of the Order Ferdinand and Isabella, and by the Pope knight of the Order of St. Gregory. When he returned here he brought with him the magnificent communion service presented by the ex Queen of Spain to St. Mary's Cathedral For about aldetnight past the deceased was complaining of slight illness, but it was only on Sunday that any symptoms of mental derangement manifested themselves, and then of so unimportant a form as not to render any violent restraint necessary-indeed it was only a short time before his death that the medical gentlemen present deemed such a course advisable. In private life he was extremely polite and affable, and possessed a very large circle of friends, to whom his untimely end will cause much regret.

EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS. (From the "Strasts Times," July 27, 1868.) Somo time ago we had occasion to remark upon the progress that Literature as represented by the Press had made and was making in the East, and our attention has again been called to the subject by the receipt of a Hongkong publication which deserves some notice and which we have much pleasure in introducing to the knowledge of our readers. We allude to Notes on behalf of the Chinese Government; Li- and Queries on hina and Japan, published conses issued to Filots pot being statives monthly by Mr. Saint, the proprietor of the China Mail newspaper. This publication is well printed on good paper, and in size and shape is very like its well-known namesake or prototype at home, and is equally a mine containing very curious and useful information regarding the language, literature, history, manners and customs of the Chinese and in a less degree of the Japanese. It says a good deal for the extent and stability of the footing of Europeans in China, that such a publication as this should be established and conducted with apparently auccessful vigour. The publication is altogether a very in-Pilots, the Harbour Master will supply Ap- | teresting one; and wishing it every success, we commend it to the attention and support of our readers.

(From the "Friend of India," June 4, 1868.) We acknowledge with thanks the receipt the numbers for the current year of Anglo-Chinese monthly, edited by Mr N. B. Dennys, whose "Treaty Ports of China and Japan" are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see 1.-Licensed Pilots may carry on their that the contributors include some of the business either singly or in Companies. best Chinese scholars in the East. (From the "London Examiner," May 16, 1868.)

This really useful volume ["Treaty Ports China and / Japan "] is intended as a ruide for travellers and residents in China and Japan, and as a book of reference for mercantile men generally. It contains an account, historical and political, of all the open ports of these countries, together with beking, Yedo, Hongkong, and Macao. . It has been carefully compiled and edited by Mr N. B. Dennys; and the elaborate maps and plans, with which the work abounds, considerably enhance its value. * * * We have thus given in outline some of the more prominent portions of the chapter devoted to Capton, as a specimen of the whole volume. Other chapters treating of Macao, Formosa, Ningpo, Shanghae, and the remainder of the treaty ports, we can only enumerate. The pages describing Peking, the capital, are so interesting, and contain so much that is new to European 1 .- Pilot Boats shall be registered with readers respecting its history, public buildings, and general characteristics, that we HE Gazette is a General Weekly Newspa- where each boat will be given a certificate would fain transfer them to our columns. per containing Officially Revised Reports and number.
